

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES CLOSE TO HOME & ACROSS METRO DETROIT

Please use this brochure as a guide to selecting Christian service opportunities throughout Metro Detroit. Inside you'll find the names and brief descriptions of organizations, their needs, and contact information. Organizations are listed by geographical proximity to PCA.

There are many more opportunities spread across our region. If you have a favorite place you enjoy volunteering, please share that information with Peggy Paulson at peggy.paulson@plymouthchristian.org. Happy Serving!

SUBURBAN VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

SALVATION ARMY OF PLYMOUTH

What is the Salvation Army? A thrift store, a disaster relief agency, a homeless shelter, a church? The Salvation Army is all these things and more. They exist to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and to meet needs without discrimination. The Salvation Army on Main Street in Plymouth meets the needs of those in our immediate community. Throughout the year, they have a variety of volunteer needs. You can contact them about individual opportunities or be placed on their mailing list and receive needs updates periodically.

Volunteer Opportunities

- Bell Ringing, ringbell.org
- Plymouth Tree Lighting & Kettle Kick-Off
- Thanksgiving Basket Distribution
- Christmas Toy Shop
- May Stamp-Out Hunger in conjunction with local post offices
- Spring Easter Outreach

How to Volunteer:

Please contact Volunteer & Special Events Coordinator, Sandy Kollinger, sandra_kollinger@usc.salvationarmy.org or call her at 734-453-5464.

Address: 9451 S. Main Street, Plymouth, MI 48170

MIRACLE LEAGUE OF PLYMOUTH

The Plymouth Miracle League believes every child deserves a chance to play baseball. Every weekend in the spring and fall, baseball teams meet up at the Plymouth Miracle League baseball field in downtown Plymouth and they need you to make these games possible. A student as young as 10 years old can be a Buddy. They need 100 Buddies every Saturday! Buddies can volunteer for as many or as few days as you want. There is no long-term commitment to Buddying (but you'll want to come back). They typically have the greatest need for Buddies to volunteer during the 1:00pm and 2:30pm games.

How to Volunteer:

1: Sign Up to Volunteer: <http://www.miracleleagueplymouth.org/volunteer.html>

2: Check in at the concession stand at least 10 minutes before your reserved time. They will give new Buddies a quick & easy run-down on your responsibilities, and answer any questions.

Address: 357 Theodore Street, Plymouth, MI 48170

VISTA MARIA, DEARBORN HEIGHTS

Vista Maria exists to deliver innovative care, support, treatment and education to vulnerable youth so that they heal, believe in their worth, and build the skills needed to succeed.

Volunteer Opportunities:

From an hour a week to an hour a year, there are a number of different volunteer opportunities available at Vista Maria. Volunteering at Vista Maria will not only fulfill your need to help others in your community, it has a huge impact in the lives of our youth, ages 11 to 18. Knowing that their community genuinely cares about their happiness and well-being gives them great self-esteem, which is vital in their road to recovery. The benefit of volunteering is not just for our young people, either. Many, if not most, of Vista Maria's volunteers have said they have learned more from the youth they have encountered there than they could have imagined. The impact the teens will have on you as a volunteer is something you will have to experience for yourself.

How to Volunteer:

Sunrise of North Farmington Hills, Senior Living Center

Sunrise Senior Center is an assisted living senior center where a PCA alumni, Jenna Abraham Rahill, serves as the Activities and Volunteer Coordinator.

Volunteer Opportunities:

There are several ways to touch the life of a senior citizen. You can work personally with Jenna to determine the best way you can volunteer. According to Jenna, "I feel incredibly blessed to have a job that I sincerely love. I believe that, as individuals, we all want to feel like we have a sense of purpose, belonging, and community. I love that my job helps instill and sustain those feelings in our residents. It is such a privilege to help residents realize how special, valued and loved they are. Even more than that, I love being able to learn from our residents. I'm thankful that I can genuinely take pride in the place that I work because Sunrise is a place that cares so deeply about its residents. I love that Sunrise consistently strives to put the residents first, no matter what."

SOAR
DETROIT

SOAR DETROIT

Two-thirds of students who cannot read proficiently by the end of 4th grade will end up incarcerated or needing government assistance. Over 70% of America's inmates cannot read above a 4th grade level. Since 2005, Soar Detroit has been successfully helping every willing child read at or above grade level. The students increase on average 2.3 grade levels after just one year in this literacy program. Children enrolled in Soar receive one-on-one mentoring and an individualized learning plan prepared by a professional education specialist.

Located on Detroit's east side, Soar operates after school, where children come for one hour, two days a week.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Anyone 12 years or older who wants to make a difference in a child's life and can read is welcome to volunteer. All volunteers receive a 90-minute training prior to mentoring. The commitment is an hour per week, October-May.

How to Volunteer:
